LOCAL BREVITIES.

When will we have plenty of water again?

Canned goods from 7 1/2 to 12 1/2 cents per can at H. Barnhouse's.

It is said that at least fifty hush haulers come to Ironton every day.

The Ironton boys are going to Farmington Saturday to play foot ball.

Prices on Dry Goods and Groceries greatly reduced at H. Barnhouse's.

Do not forget the Farmers' Institute Monday and Tuesday, November 25th and 26th.

A big minstrel show is billed to appear at the Academy of Music, November 26th.

It seems to be a difficult matter to import sufficient hay and corn to supply the demand.

There is talk of organizing a bank at Bismarck. Louis Miller of Arcadia is one of the promoters.

Probate court has been in session this week but the docket is light and the business unimportant.

The farmers in the west end of the county are nearly all employed hauling staves to the railroad.

During a scuffle one of the large windows in the pool room was broken last Saturday night. Nobody hurt.

It would be difficult to estimate the distress that would follow real cold weather with water as scarce as it is at present.

The railroad is doing an immense freight business these days. It is almost impossible to get the trains over the road.

Jas. Webb and party of friends from St. Louis arrived in town this morning, and will spend several days in the country hunting.

The well drillers are still at work at the flouring mill. They have secured considerable water, but not sufficient to secure a flow.

Another slight rain Monday. But the heavy rain, the ground-soaker, the one we have been waiting for for months still delays.

We guess the people of Ironton want no arctician well on Main street. It is to be regretted no interest could be aroused on the subject.

Another passenger train will be put on the road Sunday—the Hot Springs special. It is a fast train and makes the run from St. Louis to Hot Springs in twelve hours.

James Harris and John McCumber, a couple of Dunkin county "bootleggers," were brought here last week to serve sentences for violating Uncle Sam's revenue laws.

Lost.—A purse containing $500 in cash, one diamond ring valued at $250 and one of Lopez's $5.00 overcoats. Finder can keep the ring and money, but return the overcoat.

Tom Chestnut, a young man quite well known to many people in the Valley, is now employed as train dispatcher at De Soto. We congratulate Tom on his advancement.

The Bismarck Hotel association of Bismarck, Mo., has been incorporated with a capital of $18,000. The incorporators are Wm. Trauerlicht, Louis Miller and Chas. Shaver.

Potosi is considering the proposition of having water works. Well, if Potosi can have waterworks there is no reason in the world why Ironton should be denied that great convenience.

Next regular meeting K. P. Lodge November 22. Work in third rank and election of officers. All members are urged to attend.

J. M. HAWKINS, K. R. & S.

Mrs. T. A. Bruce, who is under the care of a St. Louis specialist for treatment to her eyes, has been quite sick for several days, but is reported convalescent.—Salem Republican-Headlight.

In the Probate Court Wednesday, John R. McKinney was discharged as the guardian of W. T. McKinney, being declared of sound mind again and capable of taking charge of his affairs.

The hub hauler has almost put the wood hauler out of business. It is very seldom these days that you see a load of genuine cord wood. At this season of the year a team at each hub factory is kept busy filling orders for wood.

Joseph Thompson, of Black River has taken the contract for carrying the mail from Arcadia to Edge Hill. The contract calls for a round trip every day in the week except Sunday, and the price paid is said to be $400 per year.

A special sacramental service will be held Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Church the objects being the special work of one of the parish societies, the Sunday School, those who may be admitted into religious fellowship, and that all churchmen may know and act upon their full duty especially in regard to church going. After this hour for the service will be placed at 8:30 during the cold weather.

It is certainly to be regretted that an arrangement cannot be made with the railroad company to run Nos. 53 and 54 stop at this station. There would be one day in a month when there wouldn't be passengers on both trains.

The band boys intend giving a grand termination of illegal dives for ball and oyster supper Thanksgiving night, November 28, 1901. Oystermen are such divers. Centerville will be served in any style, commencing at 6 p. m. Come and help the boys out and see the handsome band room suit they intend to give away that night. For further information see bills.

Sheriff Gregory went to Jefferson City Saturday taking James Loyd to the penitentiary. Loyd was convicted of robbery at the last term of our circuit court and given a sentence of six years in the penitentiary. This is Loyd's second term, having been sentenced from Wayne county about five years ago.

We learn that Mr. H. R. Smarr, the popular station agent at Mineral Point, will resign his position on the 15th inst. and retire from the railroad business to take a course in dentistry. He has already sold his house at the Point to Henry Walton of that place, and will remove to St. Louis shortly. We wish "Bob" good luck in his new undertaking.—Potosi Journal

Says the Brunot correspondent of the Greenville Sun: "Emory and Norman White and families of Bellevue passed through our town last week with 80 head of cattle which they were taking to the swamps of Southeast Missouri to winter. They say there was no corn at all raised in Bellevue and but little hay. They had their guns and dogs along, contemplating a hunt and general good time when they reach their destination which is about 15 miles below Dexter."

Five young ladies, students at the convalescent hospital at the University of the Registrar office last Thursday afternoon. Their names and homes are: Fannie Tiedebohl, Chicago; Pauline Weinsberg, St. Louis; Barbara Brant, Jefferson City; Alice Barnett, Poplar Bluff; Clara Holtschneider, Jefferson City. Our very good friend, Mr. Matt. Hastings of St. Louis chaperoned the party. We hope they will visit us again and often. The latch string is ever on the outside.

Drink, and the gang drinks with you; swear off and you go it alone; for the bar-room bum who drinks your rum has a querulous thirst of his own. Feast, and your friends are many, and they eat you dead. They'll not get mad if you treat them bad, so long as their stomachs are fed. Steal if you get a million, for then you can furnish bail; it's the great big thief who gets out on leaf, while the little one goes to jail. Advertise and the dollars will come; stop and they fail to arrive; for how are men who have money to spend, going to know that you are alive.

When you ask a man to subscribe for your paper and he says, "Oh, I never read much, and besides the times are so plagued hard," for God's sake apologize and leave him. Life is too short to teach a jack to sing soprano. All gentlemen nowadays read newspapers, and lots of them. Show us a man who lives for years in a town or community and never subscribes for the paper published there and we will show you a man whose head is shaped like a piece of pie, with the point up, and whose ignorance is only exceeded by his gigantic gall.—Ez.

Don't forget the B. & A. contest Thursday, November 21st, given under the auspices of the Willing Workers. The following is the list of prizes offered: For the best loaf of home made bread made of Ironton Manufacturing Company's Flour, any grade. 1st prize, $5 in gold; 2d prize, $3 in cash; 3d prize, $2 in cash. For the prettiest fancy apron, (10 cts. entrance fee); 1st prize, embroidery scissors and emery; 2d prize, souvenir spoon. For the best designed coat apron, the apron to be donated. 1st prize, salad bowl; 2d prize, hand made tablecloth. Prizes to be entered at 10 o'clock.

The hunting party which left here last week struck an inhospitable country for hunters. They went down on Black River, in Reynolds county, to run deer, fish, and get some other game as they could. Everything went well the first day, and they succeeded in killing one deer. The next morning all their dogs were dead—had been poisoned—presumably by poisoned meat that had been scattered near camp or in the woods. This sort of a reception was taken as an indication that outside hunters would not be tolerated in that vicinity, so they struck tents, moved to another run, where more hounds were procured, word reached here Tuesday that they had killed another deer, a fine antlered buck.—Farmington Times.

Instead of the usual night service at St. Paul Episcopal Church next Sunday, there will be service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with sermon, "How a Camel can Go Through the Eye of a Needle." The pastor regrets to change the regular hour, but as he does so to take the place of Rev. Dr. Brittain at De Soto, who goes to St. Louis to preach in the general exchange of pulpits, arranged each year to advocate the cause of missions, and as the missionary cause is especially dear to the people of St. Paul's, it is believed that they will not mind the change for the time, as thereby something may be contributed by them in the interest of the great subject. Everybody then is affectionately invited to this afternoon service.

We get from a reliable source that on last Monday night a bundle of switches were placed at the door of Rev. Albert Sitton of Lesterville, Mo., pastor in charge of the M. E. church south for the Centerville circuit, with a notice for him to leave the county inside of ten days. It is said that this was done because the Rev. Sitton had threatened to report all those who were selling whiskey contrary to the law of the United States and the state of Missouri. We have not heard whether Sitton will pull up and leave or not, neither do we know who made the threats but if the law-abiding citizens of Reynolds county will stick to Rev. Sitton, (and we think they will) his work will prove a blessing to the people of the county. Rev. Albert Sitton is from one of the best families the state and comes to us well recommended as a pious christian gentleman, and it will be a blur on the fair name of our country if he is allowed to run out by men who do not respect law of this country. Let all good men stand by and uphold Sitton in that night.

For Hoarseness.

Recommends it to Trainmen.

G. H. Hausan, Lima, O. Engineer L. E. & W. R. R. writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends among the train men, who are usually similarly afflicted." Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Men's Pants from 50 cents to $3.50, and everything in clothing lower than ever, at H. Barnhouse's.

Des Arc News.

We still have no rain, and wheat is doing no good. The grass seed that is being sowed doesn't seem to grow.

The railroad is still blocked with freight. Sunday night the passenger train No. 51 was detained one half hour at Piedmont. Could not get by for freight cars. Annapolis is doing more business than I ever knew.

Our accommodating agent, Mr. Davidson, gave me a report of the business done at that place during the month of October. It is as follows: 108 cars of lumber, 18 cars of iron, 11 cars of stock, $507.03; freight forwarded, $599.72.

Mr. D. is one of the most accommodating agents on the Iron Mountain railroad. He will tell you any any time a day where the different trains are, etc. An agent doesn't lose anything by being accommodating and answering all civil questions, and makes the line popular. That is his instructions laid down in the book of instructions of the Iron Mountain road.

Some time ago a new road-master was appointed on the Cotton Belt, and he stopped off at a small station, went in and was asking the agent about certain things concerning the road. He cut him off short, and said to the road-master, "I am not around answering questions," or in other words, "he was not a Bureau of Information."

The roadmaster went out and was examining the switches, etc. Some one told the agent that he was the roadmaster. He ran up and apologized, but the roadmaster said it did not make any difference, there would be a man to take his place this evening.

Mrs. G. W. Wallis and children returned from Ironton Saturday, where she has been visiting her daughter.

Mrs. J. E. Heister, of Ironton, and Mrs. Fred Heister, of Brunot, are visiting their parents here this week.

Miss Minnie Collins, of St. Louis, is visiting home folks here. She will return to the city the latter part of this week, accompanied by her parents.

Mr. J. S. O'Neal, wife and children, of Mill Spring, spent Sunday in our town.

Quite a number from this place attended church at Brunot Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath and wife spent Monday at Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Pate were also in Piedmont last week.

Miss Clara Shirrels, of Ironton, is visiting her sister here.

The postoffice and contents were destroyed by fire here last Thursday night.

Nov. 12, 1901.

ISAAC.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn on the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Swift's Hams, 13 1/2 cents per pound; Dry Salt Meats, 8 1/2 to 12 cents; Smoked Meats, 10 to 14 cents, at H. Barnhouse's.

From Goodwater.

Ed. Register—Another dry month has passed away. During October we had but two rainy periods of any consequence. On the night of the 11th inst., and during the following two days and nights, considerable rain fell in this section of country, causing a rapid germination of small grain that had been previously sowed and rendering the soil in our fields in good condition for subsequent sowing of wheat and rye. The rains, and the warm weather following them, also greatly benefited farmers by causing a much needed growth of grass in pastures and on the range. No other rains of consequence fell hereabouts until this morning, to-night a good rain is falling quietly, without blow or bluster. As it has been too dry for the later sown grain to germinate this rain will be of great benefit. It was urgently needed, as it is high time that grain was growing so as to become sufficiently hardy to endure the frosts of winter.

Died—At his home near Stone Hill, on October 1st, Mr. Azariah Yount, Jr., of inflammation of the stomach. The deceased was about 50 years of age when he died and was a former resident of this neighborhood. His death was a surprise to all who knew him as he was always stout and hearty, rarely ever ill. He leaves a wife and three children and numerous other relatives to mourn his sudden demise. His remains were interred in Stone Hill cemetery. He was a member of the "Modern Woodmen."

John G. Yount, and other relatives of the late Az. Yount, Jr., passed through here on their way to attend his funeral.

The following-named persons went from this community to the point:

named on business during October: W. B. Alcorn, to Howe's Mill; Jas. F. Merritt, to Belgrade; Jas. A. Payne, to Flat River; R. C. and W. D. Crocker, to St. Louis; A. M. Alcorn, to Greely.

On the 4th inst., Alex. Jennings was struck on the head and breast by a limb that broke from a tree he had just felled. He was rendered temporarily unconscious but after some time recovered from the injuries.

On the 6th inst., the remains of Mr. Jas. Anderson, who recently died at his home near Mann, were buried in the Emmaus Church graveyard. The deceased was a nephew of Mr. Jasper Anderson.

Rev. Mr. Wetsey, of Nebraska, held a series of religious services at our school house recently.

John T. Holman, of near Stone Hill, passed through here recently, on his way to Cub Creek on business.

The following-named persons visited friends hereabouts during October: J. G. Mason and daughter, Lula, of near Berryman; Emanuel Gunnert, of near Des Arc.

The following-named Goodwater folks visited friends and relatives at the points named during October: Mrs. A. M. Alcorn, son and daughter, near Dillard; Jas. F. Merritt and family, on Cub Creek.

Jas. M. Lucas attended church near Clones on the 20th inst.

The following-named stock buyers were out here purchasing cattle recently: Messrs. Edward, Louis, and John Johnson, of near Belgrade and S. C. Payne, of near Courtis.

Quite a number of persons went from this neighborhood to attend the Baptist Association which was recently convened at Pleasant Grove Church, near Tolu.

On the 21st inst., Messrs. Knox and Gisham, of Caledonia, passed through here on their way westward. They were striving to obtain a clue as to who the person or persons were who recently entered and robbed Mr. Gisham's store at Caledonia.

J. G. Yount, of near Ironton, was out here last week, "rounding up" his range cattle.

The Scott-Mayberry wedding, mentioned in my last letter, was somewhat peculiar. The groom, Mr. Jas. O. Scott, is 50 years old; the bride, Miss Clara Mayberry, is aged 18. But the disparity of their ages is not so remarkable as is the fact that Mr. Scott is older than either of his wife's parents. Another unusual thing is that he has two married children older than his wife; and last, but not least, he is a grandfather.

Oct. 31, 1901.

R. E.

Adolph Bluner, Grand Mound, Ia., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and Tar in my family and think it is the best cough cure on the market. I would not be without it in my home, as there is nothing so good for coughs and colds. Arcadia Valley Drug Co."

Post-Dispatch Scores Victory.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch produces the only electrolyte color work in the west, although many papers have colored covers such as may be printed on an ordinary printing press. An electrolyte plant is a heavy investment, but unless its contemporaries open their money bags, the Post-Dispatch will reap a harvest of increased circulation. The colored cover shows the effect of good workmanship and high-priced machinery. The front page of the comic section is illustrated by Howarth, the chief of Puck's staff, who was secured by the Post-Dispatch in partnership with the New York World.

Seymour Webb, Moira, N. Y., writes: "I had been troubled with my kidneys for twenty-five years and had tried several physicians but received no relief until I bought a bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles I was absolutely cured. I earnestly recommend Foley's Kidney Cure." Take only Foley's. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.
